(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

Dear sirs,

The reason for the abandonment is that I never received the Office Action sent by the Examiner. He telephoned me on May 4th to inquire why I had not responded, and that is when I learnt that an Office Action had been issued and sent to me. Speaking with him I also learnt that it is possible to obtain all the documentation from the Pair system, which I did not know then

I never received the Office Action after that date, either.

This is the first time this event happens in the three years I have been corresponding with the USPTO regarding four patent applications that I am managing (I am the inventor of the four of them. At the beginning I was a private person and now am part of a three person company).

During the last three years, I have timely received the following Office Actions or Notices by the USPTO:

About 10 / 596,991
Office Action 1, dated 03/04/2009
Notice dated 09/14/2009
Office Action 2, dated 02/02/2010

About 10 / 599,384
Office Action 1, dated 12/21/2007
Request, dated 6/24/2008
Notice dated 07/09/2008
Notice dated 09/12/2008
Notice dated 11/25/2008
Notice dated 08/05/2009

About 10 / 599,178
Office Action 1, dated 12/11/2007
Notice dated 07/03/2008
Office Action 2, dated 10/01/2008
Notice dated 06/01/2009

I kindly petition to revive the current patent application

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed.)
